WE WELCOME YOU TO
CHRIST THE KING EPISCOPAL CHURCH

If you are a visitor to our area, we invite you to make us your “church home away from home” during your stay.

We invite you to participate fully in our worship, to receive the sacraments offered, & be refreshed in your journey. If you are new to our area and looking for a church home, we hope that you will consider our parish as your new church home.

Whether you are visiting or a newcomer, all baptized Christians may come to the Altar to receive Holy Communion.

Our normal Sunday schedule is:

8:00 a.m.	Holy Eucharist, Rite I
9:00 a.m.	“Coffee in the Kitchen”
9:15 a.m.	Adult & Youth Christian Education
10:30 a.m.	Children’s Church
10:30 a.m.	Holy Eucharist, Rite II followed by coffee and fellowship
4:45 p.m.	Alternative Eucharist in the Parish Hall
5:00 p.m.	Episcopal Youth Community Watch for reinstatement date

New Adult Christian Education Program... The Sunday School program is entitled, “The Language of God” by Francis S. Collins, M.D., Ph.D. A fascinating study of how science supports religion from creationism through early “man”. All Christ the King members, guests, and visitors are welcome and encouraged to participate. Future lesson series are listed below. Come join us at 9:15 a.m. in the Hughes’ Library.

- .Sunday, February 26 -- March 18. “The Prodigal God” by Timothy Keller -- led by Kirby Williams.
- Lenten Series: Wednesday, February 29 -- Wednesday, March 28, Fr. Cooper will lead a class studying "The Last Week: What the Gospels Really Teach About Jesus' Final Days in Jerusalem". by Marcus Borg and John D. Crossan.

Tentative plans are to do a follow-up to "The Prodigal God", the book "Return of the Prodigal Son" by Henri Nouwen, starting after Easter.

Women's Prayer Group

The Daughters of Christ the King (no longer affiliated with the Order of Daughters of the King) is a prayer group open to all women who wish to fellowship and pray together for any and all needs. We enjoy the quiet time of being in the presence of God and silently praying for whatever is on our hearts. We follow a simple meditation of scripture and prayers. Please join us. You may leave immediately after the meeting or stay for the 5:30 weekly Holy Communion/Healing Service. We will meet on each 2nd Wednesday.

Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things both in heaven and on earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of your people, and in our time grant us your peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Old Testament

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses said, The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: "If I hear the voice of the Lord my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die."

Then the Lord replied to me: "They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak-- that prophet shall die."

Psalm 111

Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, * in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the deeds of the Lord! *
they are studied by all who delight in them.

His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for ever.

He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

He gives food to those who fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his covenant.

He has shown his people the power of his works *
in giving them the lands of the nations.

The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
all his commandments are sure.

They stand fast for ever and ever, *
because they are done in truth and equity.

He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever; *
holy and awesome is his Name.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding;
his praise endures for ever.

The Epistle

1 Corinthians 8:1-13

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that "all of us possess knowledge." Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him.

Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that "no idol in the world really exists," and that "there is no God but one." Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth-- as in fact there are many gods and many lords-- yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. "Food will not bring us close to God." We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed.

But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

The Gospel

Mark 1:21-28

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him.

They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching-- with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.
